

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force stations to air a partisan slanted program days before the election is dangerous to democracy. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and should present balanced views.

Sinclair's actions show we need to strengthen media ownership rules. They should serve the public, and not their own political views. You have an obligation to support American freedom and democracy, and this calls for strong action on your part. Thank you.